

6.0 Responding to a Withdrawn Submission

If HUD has withdrawn your HUD-FHA Approval status and you would like to start an appeal, please refer to this section.

HUD may withdraw a lender's HUD-FHA Approval status for one of four reasons:

- Financial reports must be submitted to HUD within the 90-day period after the lender's fiscal year end. After the 90-day period, the submission is considered late. The lender will only have 30 days from the day they are considered late to submit an acceptable financial report or cure. If the lender did not submit an acceptable financial report or cure within 30 days of the date they were marked late (90th day), the lender's HUD-FHA Approval will be withdrawn.
- If the lender's financial report was submitted to HUD, rejected, and the lender did not submit an acceptable cure to the rejected financial report within 30 days of the submission being marked rejected, the lender's HUD-FHA Approval will be withdrawn.
- If the lender's financial report was submitted to HUD, marked deficient, and the lender did not submit an acceptable cure to the deficient financial report within 30 days of the submission being marked deficient, the lender's HUD-FHA Approval will be withdrawn.
- If the lender did not submit a submission at all within the first 120 days after the lender's fiscal year end date, the lender's HUD-FHA Approval will be withdrawn.

Note: All lenders have the ability to either request a hearing or submit a reinstatement cure as part of HUD's appeal process for a withdrawn HUD-FHA Approval status. Lenders will have 30 calendar days from the receipt of the 'Notice of Withdrawal' letter to request reinstatement or a hearing. After the lender selects the reinstatement option they will have 14 calendar days to submit an acceptable reinstatement cure. If the lender fails to comply with either of these timelines, the lender's HUD-FHA Approval will be terminated and the lender will be required to go through the FHA-approval process again, beginning with filling out the FHA Approval Application. If the lender requests a hearing, the request will be forwarded to HUD's Office of General Counsel (OGC) and OGC will set the compliance timelines with the lender.

6.1 Withdrawn Lender Appeal Procedure

Step 1: After logging into LASS, click on the status link for the submission. The status should read 'Withdrawn'.

Note: This link will only be enabled after HUD sends the Notice of Withdrawal letter. Prior to this, the link will be inactive. The lender will have to wait for this link to be active in order to begin the appeal.

Step 2: The page will reload and the user will be brought to the 'Withdrawn Lender Appeal Procedure' page. This page will outline HUD's policy for withdrawing a lender's HUD-FHA Approval as well as a link to the Notice of Withdrawal letter. In addition, this page will also display any 'Deficiency Reasons' that the lender's original financial report may have generated. See below:

WITHDRAWN LENDER APPEAL PROCEDURE

HUD-FHA requires all HUD approved Title I and Title II non-supervised lenders, mortgagees, and loan correspondents to meet minimum net worth and liquidity requirements, and electronically submit acceptable financial and compliance data within 90 days after the close of their fiscal year. As you were previously notified, your electronic submission did not meet these requirements. The deficiencies noted below, remain incomplete or missing and/or contain financial conditions that are not in compliance with Departmental requirements.

You are hereby notified that your company's HUD-FHA Approval is withdrawn effective upon your receipt of the certified mail letter (Notice) notifying you of your withdrawal. In the event you have not received your Notice, click HERE for a copy of the Notice that was sent to you at the address on file with the Department. This withdrawal is effective for a period not less than one year. Upon expiration, you may file a new application for approval under 24 CFR Part 202. This action is taken under 24 CFR Part 25. If you believe this withdrawal is in error, please notify the Office of Lender Approval via telephone at (202) 755-7400, extension 161, via fax at (202) 755-0303, or via e-mail at HSG-Lender_Approval@hud.gov.

Pursuant to 24 CFR Part 25.8, your company may request a hearing in this matter. To expedite the resolution of this matter, you may bypass the hearing process and request reinstatement through HUD's streamlined reinstatement process. See Request for Reinstatement template, below, for more details. All requests for this reinstatement process must be made electronically. Selecting this process will automatically preserve your right to request a hearing in this matter, if necessary.

If you are not interested in the expedited process described above (or unable to resolve this matter through the streamlined reinstatement process described above), you may request a hearing in this matter. Hearing requests can be expedited by responding electronically through the Request for Hearing template, below. Hearing requests can also be made in writing (please include a copy of this document with the Lender Information completed). Written requests must be mailed to:

HUD MRB Docket Clerk
451 7th Street, SW., Rm. B-133 CEP Portals Bldg
Washington, DC 20410

All requests for either a hearing or to participate in the Reinstatement Process must be made within 30 days of receipt of the Notice. If HUD does not receive a response within these 30 days, this action may no longer have a right to a hearing in this matter.

This action in no way affects your company's continuing responsibility in connection with outstanding HUD-FHA insured mortgage loans and the obligation to pay all fees or premiums now or hereafter due the Department. HUD-FHA will not endorse any mortgage originated by a withdrawn lender unless, prior to the date of the withdrawal, a firm commitment has been issued related to any such mortgage or a direct endorsement underwriter has approved the mortgagor for any such mortgage, evidenced by the signing of a Mortgage Credit Analysis Worksheet. All other mortgages in process must be assigned to another HUD-FHA approved lender.

the 'Notice of Withdrawal' letter.

If your company has been approved to participate in the Department's multifamily mortgage insurance program, this action will not affect outstanding firm commitments, including insurance of advances made or to be made during construction under multifamily mortgage loans initially endorsed for insurance. However, conditional commitments must be assigned to another HUD-FHA lender approved for multifamily programs.

Effective upon receipt of your letter, the Department will not issue new case numbers or accept new applications for commitments (except as noted above) and will return all pending applications. We have advised all relevant Department Offices of this action.

If you have any question, please contact this office via telephone at (202) 755-7400, extension 161, via fax at (202) 755-0303, or via e-mail at HSG-Lender_Approval@hud.gov.

See below:

Request for Reinstatement

This process allows a lender to enter into an expedited settlement with the Department. By selecting to go through this process, the lender preserves its right to later request a hearing in this matter in the event it is unable to cure its deficiencies and/or complete the Request for Reinstatement process.

In order to be reinstated, you must first:

1. Cure all deficiencies noted above under "Deficiency Reasons,"
2. Pay the Department a Reinstatement Fee of $1,000,
3. Be current on any outstanding financial obligations owed to the Government, and
4. Sign a settlement agreement with the Department.

All cures must be submitted and approved by the Office of Lender Approval (OLA) within 30 days of submitting your Request for Reinstatement. Therefore, to meet this 30-day requirement, cures must be submitted as quickly as possible, but no later than 14 days of the Request for Reinstatement. OLA will then review your submission and reach a decision on whether to accept or reject your cures. Once your Request for Reinstatement is submitted, you will be directed to the proper screen so that you can submit your cures.
